

There's a time to run and a time to walk;
 There's a time for silence, a time for talk;
 There's a time for work and a time for play;
 There's a time for sleep at the close of day.
 There's a time for every thing you do,
 For children and for grown-ups, too.
 A time to stand up and a time to sit –
 But see that the time and actions fit.

Things to do :

- Answer the following questions :
 - When is it the time for sleep?
 - What is meant by 'There's a time for every thing you do'?
 - Who should do everything at a proper time? Tick the correct answer.
 * Children ☐ * Grown-ups ☐ * Both ☐
- One line in this poem contains its message in short. Write down that line.
- In this poem, 'time' means a suitable or proper time for doing certain things. Match the occasions in A with the actions in B.

A	B
(a) When you have to catch your opponents in a game of tag	(a) Time to talk
(b) When you are on a crowded street	(b) Time to run
(c) When somebody has asked you a question	(c) Time to be silent
(d) When you are in a library or hospital	(d) Time to walk
- Find the meaning of the following using a good dictionary :
 - Nine times out of ten
 - No time like the present
 - A stitch in time saves nine.

